

Ollies Newsflash

Christmas concert news

The excitement is building for the Christmas concerts on the 13th and 14th December. Tickets and running order will be released in early December. There will be a maximum of three tickets per family per show (junior infants to 2nd class) and forms will be sent home shortly with payment information

Creative schools project

we are incredibly lucky to have the very talented sound artist Ed Devane coming into the school this month. He will be working with the children to make electronic musical instruments - he can even make music from a vegetable!

Parents Association

Our annual St Vincent de Paul appeal starts next Monday for two weeks. Sponsorship cards will go home in bags this week. All donations will be very welcome.

The PA have partnered with <https://www.mynametags.ie/> as a great way of raising money for the school. For every set of labels ordered, the school will receive 24% commission. School id is 14721. More details to follow.

Next Swap Shop is Wednesday 6th December. It will include costume/dress up sale rail as well as normal uniform items.

Principal update

The most wonderful time of the year is already underway in classrooms with poetry, song and art to herald the beginning of the Christmas season. We wouldn't want to be anywhere else!

Upcoming events:

Christmas cards will be delivered soon so keep an eye on the schoolbags!!

Last day of term is Friday 22nd December. The school will close early and the children will be able to wear their festive outfits

Unicef Child Rights Programme :

student council will continue to work on the child's rights schools programme with student voice at the centre with presentations and surveys at assembly

Club draw

Thank you so much to everyone who has contributed to the 300 club draw, so far we have had an amazing 168 families sign up. Our aim is to reach 250 families. The first draw takes place next week on 30th November! Just log into Aladdin and click voluntary contribution club draw to take part. Your support is greatly appreciated.
